DEDICATION

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1923,
DEDICATE THIS BOOK

To

OUR MOTHERS

WHOSE HELPING HANDS GUIDE US
ALWAYS, WHOSE LOVING HEARTS
SHARE OUR TROUBLES, WHOSE LIVES ARE A LIVING SACRIFICE,
AND WHOSE LOVE WE CHER-
ISH MOST OF ALL.

FOREWORD

We hope that this twenty-fifth volume of the MUSE in years to come will serve to bring back fond recollections of the places and faces dear to every St. Mary's girl. By doing so, it will more than repay our labors and prove our efforts not in vain.

Tune: "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thought of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! how great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through fast rolling years it will grow and endure;

Be a lamp and guide to their feet.
May the future unite all the good of the past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teaching o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom and love.

THE CHAPEL AND RECTORY

MUSE

The Rev. Aldert Smedes, D.D., was the founder and first rector of St. Mary's School. Opening the school in May, 1842, he remained here until his death in 1877. "He has gone to his reward; but his work remains, and will remain from generation to generation."

The Rev. Bennett Smedes, D.D., became the second rector of St. Mary's in 1877. Here he remained for twenty years, "the head of his household, a companion of infinite tenderness, sympathy and understanding, a man to lean upon, to look up to, to thank God for."

The Rt. Rev. Theodore DuBose Bratton, D.D., was rector of St. Mary's from 1899 to 1903. St. Mary's went forward rapidly under his administration, the Rectory, Senior Hall, and the Piano Practice Rooms being built, and the College Department established. He was greatly loved by faculty and students. In 1903 he left St. Mary's to accept the call to the Bishopric of Mississippi.

The Rev. McNeely DuBose, D.D., rector of St. Mary's from 1903 to 1907, is especially remembered for his great interest in the chapel which, during his rectorship was completely renovated and enlarged by the addition of the trancepts.

The Rev. George William Lay, D.C.L., was here from 1907 to 1918. "He inculcated a respect for discipline and promptness. In his personal attitude toward pupils and parents, and in his attitude toward the standards of education, patrons of the school and others have recognized and appreciated his sincerity of purpose, his honesty of statement and aim."

MISS KATE MCKIMMON

"Miss Katie" entered St. Mary's School as a little girl in 1867. After being a pupil she became a teacher and taught until 1919. This makes her fifty-sixth year of service to the school. She has given her devoted attention to the work of the chapel.

"Miss Katie" is very dear to the heart of all St. Mary's girls and we don't know what we could do without her.

Miss McVea paid tribute to her in the following poem published on her fiftieth birthday:

To Miss Katie

To long for truth, to try to realize
The highest that we see—that is the noblest
Living; and that, dear friend, in all these years
Your high sincerity, your love of love,
Your hatred of deceit and scorn of all pretense
Have helped us to desire.

Thinking of you,
We know that love and truth are real;
That God and good are the eternal verities!
Noisy ambition, hard-won fame, the wish
For recognition even of worthy work,
Besides these vital truths fade into nothingness.
To do good, and to distribute of your love
And of your strength to them that need—that
Has been your life. And with such service
God is pleased.

EMILIE W. MCVEA, 1900.

The original of the "Stage Coach Picture," so often used in The Muse to contrast the old days with the later ones, was a drawing by Mrs. Gustave Blessner. Mr. Blessner, Musical Director at St. Mary's in the '40s, had it lithographed for use on the cover of some waltzes which he composed and had published in 1845. On the title page of the music, in addition to the Stage Coach Picture, was printed: "The Flower of the South: A Collection of Characteristic Waltzes, Composed for the Piano, and Dedicated to the Young Ladies of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C., by Gustave Blessner."

St. Mary's Alumnae

IN 1880 Mrs. Kate Meares suggested the foundation of a St. Mary's Alumnae Association and called a meeting, at Christ Church Parish House, of the St. Mary's girls in Raleigh. Her suggestion met with approval and Mrs. Penelope Cox was elected first president of the association.

When Mr. Ernest C. Cruikshank was at St. Mary's he took great interest in the Alumnae Association and in getting alumnae lists for the school files. He also got the alumnae to adopt a constitution—a movement which was a great step forward.

For forty-three years the Alumnae Association has been steadily growing in numbers, influence, and service. It has done effective work in aiding the progress of the school, and, in addition to constant service rendered St. Mary's by the individual members, the association has completed three works of importance. The first was the foundation of the Smedes Memorial Scholarship, in memory of the first two rectors and the wife of Dr. Aldert Smedes. This was undertaken early in the life of the association and was completed in 1903. The next regular work was the enlarging and improving of the chapel, around which the fondest recollections and deepest interest of the alumnae center. In 1904 and 1905, during Dr. DuBose's rectorship, this work was done with the assistance of the trustees. At the 1907 commencement the endowment of the Mary Iredell-Kate McKimmon Fund was undertaken and the desired sum was reached in 1916.

The Alumnae Association is now devoting its efforts to the raising of the St. Mary's School Fund. Five years ago an effort was started to secure three hundred thousand dollars to be used in three ways: to apply on the debt, to apply on an endowment fund, and to add to the plant and equipment of the school. Two-thirds of the desired sum was secured. The forty thousand-dollar debt was paid prior to September the fifteenth, 1922, the opening of the eighty-first session, and a small endowment fund was started. The aim of the alumnae is now one hundred thousand dollars, of which about fifty-five thousand has been secured in cash and pledges. An intensive campaign is being carried on and it is hoped that the goal will soon be reached. To this end the pageant, "The Cross Triumphant," was presented in Washington in the spring of 1922, and again in Raleigh in October, 1922, under the auspices of the St. Mary's Alumnae Association.

There are about four thousand alumnae who are organized as far as possible into local chapters in their several cities and towns. There are many St. Mary's girls, of course, who do not belong to any chapter because there are too few alumnae in the town in which they live to form chapters. There are organized active chapters in New York, N. Y.; Washington, D. C.; Norfolk, Va., as well as those in North Carolina, including those in Asheville, Charlotte, Chapel Hill, Edenton, Greenville, Hillsboro, Henderson, Rocky Mount, Scotland Neck, Raleigh, and Elizabeth City.

These chapters hold meetings on November the first, All Saints' Day, which is celebrated as Founders' Day, and on May the twelfth, the date of the first opening of St. Mary's, celebrated as Alumnae Day. The association meets each year at St. Mary's at Commencement.

With the fine record of achievements behind it and the added enthusiasm and love for the school as evinced in the present St. Mary's Fund Campaign, the St. Mary's Alumnae Association looks forward to a happy and useful future.

Hail, St. Mary's!

Adapted From Margaret Mason Young, 1899

In a grove of stately oak trees,
  Where the sunlight lies,
Stands St. Mary's true and noble,
  'Neath the Southern skies.

Far and wide, oh sound her praises,
  Chorus full and free,
Hail, St. Mary's, Alma Mater,
  Hail, all hail to thee!

Well we love the little chapel,
  Ever hold it dear;
Hear the echoes of the music,
  Rising soft and clear,
    Far and wide, etc.

There the ivy and the roses
  Climb the old stone wall,
There the sweet, enticing bird notes
  Sound their magic call.
    Far and wide, etc.

And the bonds of friendship strengthen
  As her beauties charm,
We draw close to Alma Mater,
  Trust her guiding arm.
    Far and wide, etc.

To Our Mothers

Sometimes it seems so very strange,
Now that we're grown-up girls,
That once we were tiny babies
With big, round eyes and curls.

Then we grew up so very fast
And soon were first-grade tots;
The grammar grades we struggled through
With play and fun—just lots.

Our high school days were a golden time,
Latin wasn't so very bad
Because, although we studied hard,
Think of the fun we had.

And now we're St. Mary's graduates,
A great, great deal we know;
But all our fun and happiness
We to others owe.

While in long clothes they cared for us,
Their names we first could say;
Tears in their eyes they watched us go
Skipping to school the first day.

All our school days were made so bright
By their tender love and care;
Such happy times they made for us,
Pretty clothes for us to wear.

When we left home for old St. Mary's,
It was with tears in our eyes,
So many things they'd done for us,
Made many a sacrifice.

Throughout our lives, carefree and glad,
So much has been done by others;
And those to whom we owe it all
Are, to be sure, Our Mothers!

SENIOR CHUMS

The Class Poem

Old, old oak trees tall and stately,
Buildings worn by many years,
Stained glass windows catching sunlight
And the cross which upward rears,
Cause our throats with love to tighten,—
Love so close akin to tears.

We have played, have run and frolicked
In the halls and through the grove,
We have studied, worked and struggled,
Graduation the goal above;
St. Mary's girls for friends we've chosen,
Loved all that St. Mary's girls love.

Happy days have been our portion,
Days made up of work and play;
All have taught us true devotion
For the school which does repay
In a far, far greater measure,
All our work from day to day.

SIGMA YELLS

Ray! ray! row! row!
Sigmas, show 'em how!

We are happy
When we yell
P O W E L L
Yah—Mary!

I thought I heard somebody say that the Sigma girls were coming this way
With a veevo and vivo; and veevo; vivo, vum.
Oh! it's just as plain as it can be; we've got the Mu team up a tree
With a veevo and vivo; and veevo; vivo, vum.

Little bear—Weeeeee
Big bear—Wooooooo
Mu team—Weeeeee
Sigma team—Wooooooo!

Horse and wagon, horse and wagon,
Team, team, team.
Locomotive, locomotive,
Coach, coach, coach!

Who's gonna winna win
Who's gonna winna win
Who's gonna winna win

We're gonna winna win
We're gonna winna win
We're gonna winna win how Easy!

(Tune: Nobody Loves Me Now)

The Sigma team will surely win today,
For jus' watch the Sigma team play;
Look at the Forwards, they never miss a ball,
A Sigma Banner soon will be on the wall;
Silent in defeat, the Mu team's bound to fall,
Life doesn't seem so sweet as it used to somehow;
Come on Sigma's, you've got the Mu team now.

MU YELLS

Cheer, girls, cheer, your comrades brave and bold;
Cheer, girls, cheer, as you have done of old;
There'll be a rah, rah, rah
For every single goal;
There'll be a hot time in the old school tonight.

Stand 'em on the head,
Stand 'em on the feet,
Mu team, Mu team,
Can't be beat.

We'll pass that ball like Mu's
We'll pass that ball like Mu's
When the guards are weak, we'll pass it thru
When the guards are strong, we'll pass it, too.

M-u!
That's the way to spell it
Ray! Mu!
That's the way to yell it
Mu! Mu! Mu!

One a zip
Two a zip
Three a zip a zane
We don't a razzle dazzle sis boom bah
Mu team, Mu team, rah, rah, rah!

M-u! Rah! Rah!
M-u! Rah! Rah!
Hoo-rah! Hoo-rah!
Team! Team! Team!
Mu Team! Rah! Rah!
Hoo-rah! Hoo-rah!
Team! Team! Team!

O' whoop 'em up
O' whoop 'em up
Whoop 'em up some more
The Mu team is the team
That we all adore
It's such a peach
It's won our hearts
It surely plays the game
'Tis not tough
'Tis not rough
But it gets there just the same.

Known far and wide for beauty,
  Lib Hickerson is her name.
Elise is the most charming,
  Two dimples won her fame.
Daisy plays at basketball,
  She's good in every art.
And when it comes to brilliance,
  C. Holmes sure fills the part.
Now, Babe can certainly fascinate,
  Unending is her line.
For wit and clever sayings,
  S. Harrell don't lose "no time."
Kittrell, by far, the most athletic,
  She sho' can throw those goals.
White and Fisher are good at dancing,
  They're bound to use their soles.
And Dempsey, with her cuteness,
  Can stand the sterling test.
While the striking and most efficient
  Are left to Martha Best.

We Wonder Why!

Miss Turner rooms near Bam,
  We wonder why!
On Thursday we have ham,
  We wonder why!
And this is true as all folks say
That on each and every Thursday
We have a talk by Mr. Way,
  We wonder why!

The dead-line we can't walk,
  We wonder why!
Nor in assembly talk,
  We wonder why!
And, insult piled on injury,
After having gym, each day
At four we must go out and play,
  We wonder why!

Middies we have to wear,
  We wonder why!
And chapel caps on our hair,
  We wonder why!
And when the seniors sit up late,
With Phelps and Dummelow have a date,
Miss Morgan appears, the hand of fate,
  We wonder why!

"THE HIM BOOK"

"I Doubt It!"

When you're sent to detention for a lesson or so,
  By a voice with a sternness about it,
Do you hem, do you haw, do you say you won't go?
  Well, maybe you do, but I doubt it.

When you wake in the morning, a morn full of gloom,
  With an atmosphere dreary about it,
Do you calmly skip breakfast, and stay in your room?
  Well, maybe you do, but I doubt it.

When Saturday comes with its "clean up time,"
  And you're tired and weary and dread it,
Do you lie down and sleep and not clean up fine?
  Well, maybe you do, but I doubt it.

But when comes a week-end that Miss Morgan's away,
  This school! There's a wildness about it!
Answer me this! Do the "mice" fail to play?
  Well, MAYBE they do, but I doubt it!

Do you know A place in a big, big grove
Full of laughter, sunShine and glee,
Where In ev'ry heart there's a lasting love
For each building, pathway aNd tree
And where The cross, for guidance, gleams above?

Where Many friendships become verY fast
Quickened by love of the school so dear,
And where, into each giRl's heart there is cast

To You—Mother

My childhood thoughts are crowded
With my hours spent at your knee,
Of the beautiful stories of Heaven
And the songs you sang to me.

Of the days when I was naughty,
The hurt look in your eyes;
The way you were so forgiving,
And heeded my childish cries.

When I forgot to say I was sorry,
T'was even then that you didn't scold;
T'was all these things, my Mother,
My memory will ever hold.

How can I ever repay you?
There's no other way above,
Unless you can give me credit
For my heart that's full of love.

THE MINUET OF THE COLONIAL BALL

Did You Ever?

Did you ever know a St. Mary's girl to write
English themes instead of letters every night?
  Did you ever know them all
  When they hated basketball,
Or when they did in dancing not delight?

Did you ever know a quiet chapel line;
Or a St. Mary's girl who slept each day 'till nine?
  Did you ever know a date
  Who could stay so very late?
Or a girl who always wore her ear-rings fine?

Did you ever know a girl who did not scream;
Or a crush who held a kiss in light esteem?
  Did you ever see a girl
  Who had not at least one curl?
Well, I have—but then, 'twas in a dream.

Were you ever out in the "Great Unknown"
When exams were drawing near,
When "Zeros" stared you in the face
And you were sick with dread and fear?

The time kept pressing onward
And you really felt so blue,
You couldn't remember what happened
In the year 1492.

Then the final day has come at last
And you utter without some regret,
"Oh please, O Luck, still be with me,
Lest I forget—Lest I forget."

On the end of a very blank paper,
In the place of answers that are not,
I carefully inscribed these lines,
"O' Lady Luck deserted me—'cause I forgot."

Nite of the Roundtable

Dere Maw.—

i hav been hear two days and hav wanted to rite you but the girlds hav been rushin me to deeth and i don't hav no time. Everie bodie hear thinks i am the pickles warts (thats jus a little expresiun i picked up we learne a lot o stuff lak that up hear & the girls say fo long I'll be writin books. I'm so originol & I hope to tel you i won't (skip it). the lady prencaple is crazie 'bout me. she cals me up to hur room neerly a duzen times a dai & allways cals me "dear"—in fact the hole school thinks i am the warmest thing off the American stage.

Bid-dai is tomorrow but I haven't dacided what i want to join—we bean arounde the grove severul times looking at the houses & i think the oun thei cal the "enfirmary" is rite nice looking so I mite joint that. ain't fraternyties funnie things!?

i haven't heard of but one boy since i came & i hav a date with him at elevon oclock—C. H. W!! (that means i can't hardly wait) all the girls are talking 'bout him—his name is "Jim" & you hav to wear blumers & midy blouses—ain't that crazie—

Oh Maw please rite me write away & tel me what you want me to he in statistics —i can't decide—there are so manie things to chose from. to-nite at the tabel some bodie said something about "codfish balls"—gee I'm excited—I didn't kno we could have dances!

Oh by the way Maw i nead a litle money—i hate to ax you so soon but i've allmost spent the dollar and seventy nine that i left home with.

The president has just sent for me to come & sign a metriculation card—i don't kno what that is but guess i better go 'cause it ain't no good without my signiture—

Give my respects to all the folks.

Yo' efecshunate darter,

Ima Nut.

BENSON PRINTING CO.
NASHVILLE, TENN.

¶ More than ninety universities, colleges and schools of the South favored us with their Annual printing contracts for the year 1923.

¶ This phenomenal record is the natural result of the high quality of workmanship displayed in all our publications, coupled with the very complete service rendered the Staff.

¶ From the beginning to the end we are your counselor and adviser in the financing, collecting, and editing of your book.

¶ Surely if "Experience is the best teacher," as an old maxim says, then our service must be supreme. Decide right now to know more about our work and service. Simply write for our proposition.
